Brent Gamblin is popular with the ladies.

listen...

we hear it
everyday. as soon as we walk in the front doors of the school it's there.
it's everywhere.
we're all a part of it,

part of the voice of huntington high school.
to hear it,
all you need to do is open your ears.

so many different people within the walls of our school,
each with something to say, all with a
voice of their own,
each part of the sound that echoes
through the halls
every day. listen...
listen to our words,
our sounds. listen
to our people.

hear our voice.

The sun catches Jenn Levatino as she gazes into the courtyard.

Dan Tetrault turns to check out the action in the back of the class.

a common language

"High School is the first and most important step in the stairway of life. It teaches you how to avoid tripping on the remaining steps."

Scott Gainey

The thing that stands out most about Huntington High School is the vast ethnic, social, and cultural diversity of its student body. There are many different people in our school, and each of us has different interests, different ways of seeing things, and different ways of expressing ourselves. In the midst of this diversity however, almost intertwined in it, there is a common language that we all share, a common language that is expressed by everything we do, say, and take part in. The pages you see before you are valuable; look at them and remember. Remember what we did this year. Remember the voice we made. Remember the common language we all shared.

float night

Everyone worked hard on the floats this year, and boy, were they scary! We luckily made it through the night without any rain, and when the sun rose the next morning, countless ghoulies and ghosties made out of flowers sat waiting to drive North Babylon out of town.

home coming

Our rainy homecoming weekend was dedicated this year to everyone who made donations to keep our sports program alive and well. The Juniors upset the Seniors in this year's float competition with their gripping interpretation of the "Legend of Sleepy Hollow," while Scott Gainey and Cathy Russo received the precious crowns of Homecoming King and Queen. Loyal Huntington fans dragged out their umbrellas and raincoats to watch the Blue Devils sweep North Babylon under the rug. Although it was a close game at first, Tom Jones' spectacular 52 yard touchdown run and Ricky Raganella's crucial interception helped to insure the team's victory.

Through torrents of heavy rain, Huntington's loyal fans stayed to cheer our team to victory.

the dance

The high school gym really rocked to the beat during the homecoming dance. D. J. Tony T (Huntington graduate Anthony Troffa) kept the tunes rollin' and everybody went nuts, especially towards the end when the room burst with the sound of the Jackson Five's "ABC" and other old favorites.

Jamie Vance grimaces agonizingly over her math homework.

Caught in action!

Shanekwa Harrison and Tania White are ready to have some fun.

Darryl Evans and Mark Johnson model their new threads.

An aerial photograph of a large school building under construction. The building has a flat roof with several sections that appear to be newly installed or under repair. There are construction materials and equipment scattered around the site. In the foreground, there are trees and a paved area. A large, bold, black-outlined box containing the word 'construction' is superimposed over the lower middle part of the image.

construction

Last summer, most of H.H.S. was off limits to people who weren't wearing hard hats. Even though no classes were going on, plenty of work was being done. Voters passed a bond act last year, giving the school district enough money to carry out much-needed repairs and modernize the building. About half of the roof was replaced last summer, but the gym roof wasn't finished until October. The new gym roof lacks the arrows stuck in the old one from gym class, but no one misses all the puddles and the dripping water too much. Since some of the money for the construction came from the state, the building had to be modernized, too. Every room without windows, including the writing center, room 140, and the P.A.S.S. room, now has air-conditioning, and several juniors returned to school last September to find a new elevator where their lockers had been. With this elevator and a new ramp by the chorus room, handicapped people can now reach every room in the building.

international NIGHT

On October 21 1993, B.U.T.Y. (Bring Unity to Youth), an organization of Huntington High School that promotes racial harmony, sponsored the third annual International Night. International Night is a night at which students, parents, and staff are invited to share good food and entertainment from the many different ethnic backgrounds that make up our diverse school. The food was great, and the entertainment, which ranged from the high school gospel choir to a string octet to a dance performed by the Latin Culture Club, kept things going the whole night. Erica Knutson read a poem entitled Eyes Open Wide that she had written, and Master of Ceremonies Thomas Jones concluded the evening with a powerful reading of a poem by Maya Angelou.

International night 1993 was a very successful evening. It was nice to see students sharing their ethnic backgrounds and learning more about other people. I think Thomas summed the whole evening up when he read the last words of Maya's poem;

"We are more alike, my friend, than unlike."

Senior Michele Klein helped organize and run the November 1993 Blood Drive.

Michael Beach and Tia Schlaikjer wait this one out together.

Mike Colonna leans back and takes it easy.

Like many donors of the day, Tia Schlaikjer seemed a bit hesitant at first, but followed through to give blood.

Todd Orelli proudly displays his new headband.

The annual Blood Drive held in the high school gym on November 17 proved to be one of the best held at Huntington High School. Led by blood drive captains Michele Klein, Nora McInerny, John Donohue, and Dana Debel and countless other volunteers, the school followed through in helping to ease the great demand for blood on Long Island. Michele Klein said, "All the hard work that the students put in helped us reach our goal of 90 pints."

Through the cooperation of both students and faculty, the blood drive broke all previous records and showed the surrounding community the true spirit of Huntington High School. The many hesitant students showed that they could come through for a good cause. The sense of achievement in those who participated in the blood drive was best put by Michele Klein when she described it as "yet another positive indication that the students of Huntington High School care about the community."

HHS BOOK FAIR

On December 9 & 10 Huntington High School students came to the fourth annual book fair during their English classes. It was a wonderful opportunity to purchase favorite books for holiday gifts and to discover new favorites! The fair was also a fund raiser. This year's proceeds were donated to the V.J. Moles Scholarship Fund and the Peter Steen Spinal Cord Society. The fair was coordinated by librarian Ms. DeCanio, English Department Chairperson Mrs. Hulsart, and reading teachers Mrs. Keany and Mrs. Pry. Special thanks to all who supported the book fair. Our thanks to the staff at Oscar's Bookshop for all their hard work.

HHS CELEBRATES

I Am Not Alone

*The one consolation offered to me is a fact that I don't condone.
There are millions more of slaves like me,
so I am not alone.
You've herded me like cattle.
You've beaten me to the bone.
You've whipped me and confined me,
and I am not alone.*

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

A Flood of Hate
by Erica Knutson

*The racial flood waters to which we are as humans chest deep.
The drowning faces colored only with dull ignorance.
When will we wake from this eternal sleep?
When will appearance be recognized as something unique?
No Face superior, no religion just.
Only empathy towards each others' views.
Why must we fight viciously over what was given at birth?
Can we not enjoy as one this beautiful place
we call Earth?
Stop the needless hate;
challenge your soul to respect.
When we as one can truly see this other side,
the racial flood waters will simply dry.*

I don't like work, no man does. I'd rather laze about and think of all the fine things that can be done. But I like what I find in the work, a chance to find myself. My own reality, what no other man understands. -Joseph Conrad

Michele Klein

All around us everything was changing in the order of things we had fashioned for ourselves. -Chaim Potok

Jessica Kolitsch

Risk! Risk anything! Care no more for the opinions of others, for those voices. Do the hardest thing on earth for you. Act for yourself. Face the truth. -Katherine Mansfield

Gabe Kreiser

And I'm uh findin out that its not so easy, especially when your only friend talks and looks and sees and feels like you and you do the same just like him. -Mr. Jimi Hendrix. see ya mugs.

Wendy Ladd

Don't forget to smile (you'll look better).

Nancy Laffey

I am bigger than anything that can happen to me. All these things, sorrow, misfortune, and suffering, are outside my door. I am in the house and I have the key. -Charles Fletcher Lumms (1859-1928)

One of the principal functions of a friend is to suffer (in a milder and symbolic form) the punishments that we should like, but are unable, to inflict upon our enemies. -- Aldous Huxley

Steve Levinsohn

It takes a big man to cry. It takes an even bigger man to laugh at that man. -Jack Handey

David Levinthal

Nobody will hear you if you say nothing. Nothing will happen if you do nothing. There will never be change if we do not act. So say something, do something, express your ideas and thoughts, for we all have the power to make a difference.

Kathryn Limato

In complete darkness we are all the same. It is only our knowledge and wisdom that separate us. Don't let your eyes deceive you. -Janet Jackson. May our friendship not sever like the rose, but like the evergreen, may it last forever. CI-here's to friendship, the only rose without thorns. Good luck to the class of '94.

Chet Lukaszewski

Life's a beach...and if you want me, that's probably where I'll be! To everyone at HHS, thanks for the memories...

Jaimee Maier

Love doesn't make the world go 'round, but it makes the ride worthwhile.

BLUE DEVIL WRESTLING

The forty-fifth season of wrestling at Huntington was a good one for the Blue Devils. The team went 12-0 (7-0 in League III) and won the league dual meet and tournament championships for the twenty-first time in the past twenty-four years. When our wrestlers defeated Newfield High School on January 21 by a 51-10 score, it was the 400th all-time dual meet win for Huntington. Coached by Lou Giani, Sr., Jim Hoops and Lou Giani, Jr., the wrestlers pictured above made it all possible. (Back row l-r) Lou Giani, Jr., Chris Lehnert, Corey Schalik, Ryan Seifert, Costi Flamio, Tony White, Joe Amira, Mark Devoe, Chris Beck, Elijah Perez, Augie Abbatiello, Jesse Sasso, Kohlby O'Donnell, Jim Hoops, Lou Giani, Sr. (Front row l-r) Phil Kempf, Darren Sposato, Brian Herring, Adrian Bonilla, Jim Amira, Tim Puskas, Luis Bonilla, Jim Erickson, Adam Nigro, William Vohs.

Lou Giani is one of the top high school coaches in America today. In 26 years of varsity coaching he has a remarkable record of 319-26-1. His Huntington teams have won three state championships, five county titles, finished second six times and placed seventh or higher in the county tournament for 23 straight seasons. A 1960 Olympian and 1959 Pan Am Games gold medalist, Giani was Huntington's first county wrestling champion in 1953. Later he would coach his two sons, Lou and Joe, to Suffolk titles. Since becoming head coach of the Blue Devils, he has enjoyed eleven undefeated seasons and won twenty-one league championships. The most successful coach in state tournament history, he has had sixteen state champions—more than any other coach in history. This year he saw two more of his wrestlers win county championships to raise his career mark to 40 county titlists. Only one Suffolk coach has coached more county champions.

Seven Blue Devils won league wrestling titles this season. (Back row l-r) Mark Devoe (23-6), Luis Bonilla (27-2), Tony White (20-7), Chris Beck (22-7), (Front row l-r) Jim Erickson (26-3), Adrian Bonilla (33-2) and Jim Amira (34-0) all won league titles. They were joined on the All-League roster by Brian Herring (2nd), Joe Amira (2nd) and Phil Kempf (3rd). These ten All-League wrestlers helped Huntington to score 221 points in the League III Tournament and easily outdistance all competitors, capturing still another league team championship for our school.

Jim Amira, team captain, won the 119 lb. New York State wrestling championship and finished the season 34-0 with 12 pins. He is only the eighth Huntington wrestler in 45 years to be undefeated. He also won the league and Suffolk County championships. His lifetime record is 95-8-1 and he was All-League four times and All-County three times. He won six tournaments this season, including the Huntington Tournament for the fourth straight year. Only three other wrestlers have ever won four titles there since the tournament was started in 1971. Amira is Huntington's sixteenth state wrestling champion and his name will now be immortalized in a star on the wrestling mat.

Adrian Bonilla won the league and Suffolk County championships at 105 lbs. en route to a fifth place finish in the state tournament in Syracuse. He amassed a 33-2 record with eleven pins. In the Huntington Tournament he defeated Tom Longobardi, a state champion from Islip, by an 8-4 score in the finals and was named the Outstanding Wrestler. In his first two years on the varsity he has won the league tournament twice and has been All-County two times. His varsity record stands at 53-8.

Luis Bonilla continued his outstanding wrestling, winning three tournaments including the 112 lb. League III title. Bonilla placed third in the Suffolk tournament en route to a 27-2 record with fifteen pins. His career mark in three seasons is 69-10. He has been All-League three straight years. This season he enjoyed a sixteen match winning streak and lost a heartbreaking 7-6 decision in the Section XI Tournament semi-finals.

Tony White (right) won the 167 lb. league championship by pinning all three of his opponents in the first period, including his finals opponent, Seth Diamond of West Babylon, in just 1:28. During his career White was All-League twice and an anchor in the upper weights. This year he compiled a fine 20-6 record with fifteen pins, placing in four tournaments.

Chris Beck (top) was one of seven wrestlers who won league championships this season. Beck won his title at 138 lbs. The hard-working sophomore compiled a 22-7 record with seven pins and placed in four tournaments.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

Austerity. The first time ever and it took its toll. After coming off a Division II Big Four Championship we expected the club to be even better, but we have the powers that be to thank for this season. With no support from the community and no budget, the players were caught in the middle of an adult problem. They did their best under the circumstances, but just as the community came up short so did the Blue Devils. It takes a lot to win: hard work, talent, school support, and community support. We finished the season with a 2 and 6 record, losing three games in the last minutes. Our three Honorable Mention All-Division Players were Tom Jones, Mike Coffas, and James Paci. Our three All-Division Players were Bart Orr, Mark DeVoe, and Brian Bentley. Brian was also a second time All-County player and signed a Division I letter of intent to play at East Carolina University on a full scholarship. In addition, Bart Orr and James Paci both made the Academic All-Division team. Mike Coffas, Mike Colonna, and Brian Bentley made the Suffolk County All-Star Team and played in the All-Star game. Let's hope 1994 brings a better year both on and off the field.

Key Club Officers: President Josh Ardise, Vice President Ed Bruschino, Publicity Manager Nancy Laffey, Treasurer Rich Holsclaw, and Secretary Tony Antorino. In the middle of course is Advisor Mr. Cusumano.

The 1993-1994 school year was one no Key Club member will ever forget. The club's largest project was their flood relief efforts for Douds, Iowa. The club also participated in a Thanksgiving Scavenger Hunt to collect food for the needy and a Christmas shopping spree for local underprivileged children. The club sponsored a Bowl-a-thon, a sports marathon, and a dance all to raise money for local charities. Key Club also did leaf clean-ups for residents in Huntington and participated in the school fair. The officers and Mr. Cusumano wish to thank everyone who helped them make the Key Club such a success this year.

HONOR SOCIETY

The Nathan Hale Chapter of the National Honor Society is a service organization that requires its members to have obtained a GPA of 87 or higher and to have passed a selection process assessing its members' leadership, character, and service. The Honor Society provides a tutoring service in every subject to the student body.

This year, the Honor Society established a "buddy system" where members greet new students and help them adjust to Huntington High School. The Honor Society has also been heavily involved in the soup kitchen at St. Hughes; the soup kitchen project is ongoing throughout the year. On National AIDS Awareness Day, December 1, 1993, the Honor Society handed out red ribbons to almost every student, teacher, and administrator in acknowledgement of the millions of HIV infected people around the world. Steven Saulnier, an AIDS patient himself, gave a moving and informative presentation to the student body, speaking about his own experience living with AIDS.

The Honor Society plans to have a food drive for the homeless in the spring. In addition, the Honor Society raises money for the James Lobell Scholarship Fund.

FRENCH NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The purpose of the French National Honor Society is to join together French Students who excel at the language in a social environment that aids the community. So far this year, the French National Honor Society has held two jewelry sales, a bake sale, a toy drive for Haitian children, and a French holiday party. It has also worked together with the National Honor Society to help the local soup kitchen. In the future the French Honor Society will host more jewelry sales and other fund raisers to raise money for the French National Honor Society's scholarship fund and other community needs. Pictured to the left are Advisor Mrs. Schaffer, Secretary Rebecca Neary, President Nancy Laffey, Secretary Jaime Palmiotti, Treasurer Jessica Palmiotti, and Vice President Jeannine Beck.

SPANISH NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The "Sociedad Honoraria Hispanica" (the Spanish Honor Society), newly founded in May 1993, bears the chapter name of Marco Denevi. Its purpose is to recognize high achievement in Spanish by students of secondary schools and to promote continuity of interest in Hispanic Studies. Its goals are to apply for scholarships, to be involved in cultural activities inside and outside of school, and to provide non-profit tutoring in Spanish and ESL to our High School and Junior High School students. Students will also be involved in many school activities such as Foreign Language Week and the Spring Fair. Fund raising will be one of our goals. This year we ran three fundraisers to help buy Spanish-English dictionaries for the new ESL students. We are also starting a peer tutoring program to help the ESL students with their English. *Pictured to the left are President Karla Arias, Treasurer Davienne Monbleau, Advisor Mrs. Kirsch, and Secretary Tim Troccoli. ## LATIN CULTURE CLUB

Latin Culture Club is a club that makes every member satisfied because we talk about our surroundings and different ethnic groups. Every member that is in Latin Culture Club feels that they understand different cultures. We are all very friendly, and we always keep things going. Four important members are President Nisida Montero, Vice President Rhadis Estevez, Treasurer Julio Aguilar and Secretary Margarita Campos.

One of the best things that we like about Latin Culture Club is when we have a speaker come to talk to us, which happens almost every month. They talk about their life, job, hobbies, family, and background. It is very nice because they give us an idea about which way we have to go to be a perfect professional like they are.

We have a lot of plans for this year. We are planning to go on a trip so we can enjoy our surroundings. Latin Culture Club is very important to us because at every meeting there are a lot of conversations and we try to get to a conclusion with everyone's help. Every member has a solution and we are not satisfied until we get to an understanding.

Advisor: Mrs. Bollettieri

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE

The American Field Service (A.F.S.) Intercultural Exchange Program grew out of the search for a peaceful solution to the human conflict of the World Wars. It is one of the the largest volunteer-based organizations in the world (second only to the Red Cross) with 100,000 volunteers in 5,000 chapters and groups worldwide. The Huntington High School Chapter members worked hard this year to raise money through our pizza and poinsettia sales. The profits benefit a scholarship program for international exchange students within the chapter and help to fund our annual short-term exchange with another club in the United States. The goal of A.F.S. is to promote understanding between cultures by offering the unique oppurtunity to live abroad, not as a tourist, but as an integrated member of a family.

The Dispatch is Huntington High School's student-run newspaper. Our purpose is to inform the student body of the issues surrounding them in their school and its environs. This is accomplished through writing training sessions and reporting technique lessons held periodically throughout the year. We aim to put out issues "fairly regularly." This year we have reorganized the reporting technique our writers use and have done the layout using new computer technology.

PEER MEDIATION

Mrs. Banyon and Mrs. Griffin with Huntington High School's Peer Mediators.

One of the newest clubs at Huntington High School is Peer Mediation. As mediators, we listen to students' conflicts and try to compromise potentially hazardous situations. We have all gone through twenty hours of training in order to learn the proper ways of handling these situations. Student Mediation is made up of numerous students of various races, ages, and grades. Most mediations have two mediators who have similar characteristics to the disputants. One advantage of mediation is that it lets students get involved in their school. These mediations are an alternative to administration and parent involvement. Students are often more open to their peers and they know that all information will be kept confidential. I am proud to be on the mediation team because I know my work will benefit our school and form better peer relationships!

YOUTH IN ACTION

Youth in Action is HHS' Debate Club. We hold weekly open-forum debates on timely subjects, including the Death Penalty, Animal Rights, Ammunition, and the legalization of Marijuana. Our aim is to educate each other. Pictured at right are advisor Mrs. Weeks and officers Bill Hart, Greg Donovan, Mike Beach, and Elizabeth Weber (President).

HORTICULTURE CLUB

ENVIRONMENTAL CLUB

The Environmental Awareness Club has existed at the high school for two years. The Club's basic goals are to educate its members and the student body on environmental issues and to make some positive contribution to the state of the environment. The aluminum can recycling program in the cafeteria and the teacher's lounge is run by club members, and we have collected over seven thousand cans! The Environmental Club has participated in the Ribbons International program, and our ribbon about the environment has been displayed in the United Nations building. This year we hope to purchase land in the rainforests.

S.A.R.A.H.

co-presidents: Jessica Palmiotti and Jaime Palmiotti
vice president: Kellene Hansen
Secretary: Tia Schlaikjer

The Student Animal Rights Activists of Huntington is a fairly new club that was founded two years ago by its co-presidents. Its main goal is to inform the students and faculty of the school and the community about animal rights and corresponding environmental issues. The club receives information from large organizations such as People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals, and this information is shared as much as possible. They view PETA produced videos and hold discussions about them. S.A.R.A.H. gives out free information at environmental and animal rights fairs, as well as at its annual Vegetarian Potluck. It also collects dog and cat food and blankets for the animals of the League for Animal Protection. Although many of the members are vegetarians or vegans, the club does not push this lifestyle on to the members. The club welcomes all people who are concerned about animals.

Eyes Open Wide

by Erica Knutson

Examining a culture with Eyes open wide
Is the only way to make ethnocentricity subside.
Judging ones' character on one action they do
Leads to complete falsehood and untruth.
Looking deeply into others' needs
Helps us to understand the goals man perceives.
We as people were not all created unique UNITY is the goal we should all try to seek.
Empathize with all cultures,
Walk in their shoes
And never pick and choose.

Every year, in the last two weeks of August, while every other high school student is savoring their last days of freedom, a group of about 170 kids work their butts off in what's known as "Band Camp." We pack more than you could imagine into those hot, humid weeks--not just music and marching. For many people, they're seeing faces they've never seen before, and facing new challenges as well. But after all the sweat, shouting, and hard work, what would make so many people go back again the next year? It probably has something to do with all the trophies and awards...but I think there's something more than that. At least I know what made me go back year after year. Amidst all the rehearsals, drills, "basics," and water breaks we never had, I learned some things and made friendships that will stay with me much longer than a marching band season. There is a special sort of teamwork you learn from working so hard with such a large group to achieve the same goal. One thing that makes the Huntington band program work is the emphasis on leadership. If you need help with your music, you can ask your section leader; if you have a question about something, ask an officer. How could you not become close to a group of people that you change in front of on a crowded bus before competitions? It's pretty hard. Spending up to 21 hours a week out of school, you get to know a little bit about the people you're with, and if you're like me, you might even get somewhat attached. When competition time rolls around and the Huntington High School Blue Devil Marching Band marches out onto the field, it's not a bunch of individuals; it's a team. I never stepped onto that field and thought, "I want to win that trophy for myself, so I'm going to march in step." I always knew that I was going to do my best for the whole band. It takes all 170 kids doing their best to win the trophy, and that's exactly what we had this year.

As seniors, we've been through a lot together; freezing nights in Pennsylvania, bus rides, softball marathons, all night bowlathons, bus rides, almost 200 of us all sleeping on a hard gym floor, Arizona ("All My Ex's Live in Texas!"), the London trip that never happened, and countless more. We've gone from a band of barely ninety members to 170, constantly growing despite the budget problems. We didn't accept second place in the NYC Columbus Day Parade...this year we got first. It was especially hard for us to sit back and do nothing while watching a first place Long Island trophy and banner taken from us and then waved in our faces two years in a row, when we knew who really won (no names mentioned!). But we came back to prove that no other band on Long Island has scores even close to ours...so would you say we were proud? Sure, you could say that. And for the four years of work we put in, I don't think we could have asked for more in our final year. We got exactly what we worked for. That's something to be proud of.

-Kristen Toedtman, Senior Drum Major

GOSPEL CHOIR

The Gospel Choir of Huntington High School was first envisioned by our choir director Maurice B. Flythe as he entered Huntington High School in January of 1992 from Walt Whitman High School. He put his vision into action and came to a compromise with Mrs. Fretz, director of music and Mr. Finch, advisor at that time. On September 27, 1992, the Gospel Choir had their first rehearsal. It was a big turnout of about fifty members, but Maurice already knew that it would only take a faithful few. The first concert took place here in this auditorium, December 15, 1992. For this concert we only had twenty eight people in the choir. The choir went through many good and bad times, but somehow we made it. We've sung at many community, church and school affairs. This year we are headed toward a new direction. Our direction is to strive for total commitment and dedication. We thank God for all the time and service given to us by our old advisor, Mr. Finch. However, we are now very blessed with a new advisor by the name of Ms. Helen Weeks. She came into this choir with a mind to work. The choir is again very successful, hanging on with the faithful few. The choir included Maurice B. Flythe, President, Director and Founder, Donna M. Flythe, Vice President, Jennifer Perry, Secretary, Keena Thompson, Assistant Secretary, Maritta Reed, Treasurer, Kariana Myrie, Assistant Treasurer, Tasheema Lewis, Historian, and Helen Weeks, Advisor. The Choir members are, Celia Aviles, Noelle Benzekri, Stephanie Chea, Norma Davilmar, John Donohue, Mike Felician, La Shonda Grant, Vicki Hansen, Shauna Hanson, Shanekwa Harrison, Emily Levy, Stephanie Macari, Jessica Ott, Natalie Perry, Elise Powell, Tureka M. Ray, Gabrielle Sterbenz, Catinna Trent, and Natasha White.

There are too many to write down. I love you. Keep in touch. -AF.

Cheese: so many memories! Remember all our double dates, Montauk, Party house, visitors at 3 in the morning, always on the DL, A&S Pork stores, the CB jacket, the water bed, every wednesday night last year, the 90210 crew, the jacuzzi, Robbie dancing, 4th of July, so many more! Thanks for the memories. You're my girl. I love you!

LR Remembers:
NP it was your b-day and your face planted.
AG when you first smack stacked & did the Texas two-step.
Me & Jo laughed so hard on the ski trip and couldn't even ski the next morning.
JO-JO remember the voyage up on Southdown Hill. "It's roastbeef." The nights with the mugs.

I remember Bill.

voice

The voice of Huntington High School does not exist by itself. As soon as you leave the school you become aware of a different voice, a larger voice, the voice of the community of which we are a part. We hear the voices of parents, town merchants, and citizens of Huntington everyday. Listen to this larger voice; listen to the sounds of the community ...

HUNTINGTON A.F.S. BIDS FAREWELL TO MANUEL NAVIA

A.F.S. was created to help promote intercultural awareness, and has chapters located worldwide that exchange students for semester, summer, and full-year programs. Manuel Navia is Huntington High School's most recent exchange student on a year-long program. Born in Guayaquil, Ecuador, Manuel arrived in the United States this January and is now living with Mrs. Genevieve Reiter in Huntington Bay.

Like many American teenagers, Manuel loves to play sports. In Ecuador, he placed second in his province in the triathlon. Manuel is a member of band in Ecuador and likes to listen to many different types of music. Ugly Kid Joe, Sting, and Metallica are some of his favorites. His grandfather owns a large farm in Ecuador that produces milk, cheese, and meat. He also sells shrimp to American and European markets, and this is how Manuel discovered his love for nature.

We will all miss Manuel. Goodbye and good luck!

DEDICATION

The 1994 Huntingtonian is dedicated to retiring faculty member Noel Zirpolo, a long-time friend of Huntington High School.

Noel Zirpolo

Noel has always been a very dedicated employee of our illustrious school. In fact, she has been known to call a fellow worker during summer recess, early in the morning, just to make sure the snow chain is still working!

—Ken Gilbert

Thank you from my first Short Ships to your last vacation with us. You're a special lady.

—Margaret C.

We made our voices and drank our wine
And I must say, we had a good time.
Sorry to see you're taking a walk.
Have a great time in Ole Montauk.

—Love, Mary Rose

Mrs. Zirpolo, most admired by the staff, and loved by all the students. Happy retirement.

with love

James Edwards

Her unselfishness and dedication to this school, from running the Varsity Club, to supervising athletic events, to monitoring the halls, to being a friend to all of the HHS staff and students, always with a smile, will surely be missed. Mrs. "Z" is one of a kind.

—Steve Davis

Mrs. "Z" is a fabulous knitter. She enthusiastically knits for her grandchildren. She is also a great cook and baker. We will miss her positive attitude and cheery manner.

—Mrs. Deegan

I'll put it in writing because you can't hear it. You are very much loved and will be missed greatly.

—Mr. Noce

Zirpolo—Great lady! Remember black pelicans, chocolates on the pillows, chocolate ice cream sundaes, Montauk, and most of all, remember to keep those car windows clean. Happy Retirement.

—Mrs. Mitek

I'm certainly going to miss Mrs. Zirpolo's cheery wake-up call every morning, frantically informing us that "we're down one at the front desk!" All kidding aside, we will all miss Noel. We wish her the very best of luck in her retirement years.

—Lil Di Lello

At different times we began this school, but now we're leaving here together.

Love, you taught us, is a valuable tool,
and you'll have ours forever.

—Cathy Russo, Josh Ardise,
and the Class of 1994

There will never be another like Mrs. "Z"

—Mrs. Fogerty

Don't cry for me Argentina!

—Mrs. Boyer

Whenever anyone says her name, the people around smile.

—Mr. Cusumano

We're going to miss the "official morning greeter." She can't be replaced.

—Fran

Mrs. Zirpolo is the only person who comes out of the PASS room at the end of the day with a smile and having really accomplished something.

—Mr. Cusumano

You truly are a person who respects others!

—W. Peacock

"No problem." A phrase that I will always associate with you. Thank you for being so helpful, kind, and humorous!

—Camille D.

Good Luck. Have fun (I know you will.) We'll be calling you for advice next year. Thanks.

—Laurel Kane

Noel is a wonderful co-worker and a good friend. We will remember her as the morning greeter. On a snowy day she would tell people to take I-95 south and keep going. I will miss her tremendously. Happy "Retardment" Retirement.

—Heidie Magerle

We'll keep you on the snow chain and call you "very early," just so that you can feel "in touch."

—Dottie K.

Noel is one of those rare people that can make you smile no matter what. Her humor and understanding will be greatly missed.

—Mrs. Rodgers

"It's All In the State of Mind"

by Walter Wintle

"... Life's battles don't always go to the stronger or faster man,

But sooner or later the man who wins,

Is the man who thinks he can."

You're a winner in my book, Noel. Thanks for being my helper and friend in and out of the classroom:

1. When I was on jury duty
2. In persevering yet another Health interview
3. Your knowing glance when my husband is out of town

I'll miss you ...

—Judi Jakhelln

one final word.

Another year at Huntington High School has come and gone, and it is time to say farewell. Remember the words and faces of 1994. Remember the things we did and the things we said.

Remember our voice.
