Dedication

Because of your kindness, willingness, and grace;
Your insane sense of humor, your warm smiling face;
Your knowledge, care, and total commitment;
Honesty, acceptance and lively encouragement;
The personality traits that you possess are rare,
Not many people honestly care.
But above all, you're incredibly modest;
That's why we're here to tell you that you're the greatest.
Huntington is sad to give you up,
But the class of '97 is proud to have you graduate with us.
Good luck in all that you do, Mr. Wisch!

FROM THE PRESIDENT

The past four years at Huntington High School seem to blend together, with few exceptions, into the typical "high school experience." In-class memories range from lab mishaps to finally understanding that dreaded calculus problem. Yet two completely different feelings were evoked from each memory as I now realize the difference between feeling accomplished and having a good time.

Everyone may not be able to say that high school was an amazing experience filled with academic excellence and social acceptance. For some it has been a very simplistic experience of eight periods a day five days a week. Yet, everyone has done it together and with every passing year we become aware of our potential and find a deeper need to become something extraordinary within our individual frameworks. Everybody is searching for their "thing" in life whether they know it or not. We all want to find out exactly what our goals are and then worry about attaining them. As a community, we are a whole but as individuals, we are still piecing ourselves together as we dream of a Saturday morning on a Monday afternoon. We go through it all together, the late nights, the dances, the weekend activity and the concern of SAT's and Colleges. The one thing we have to hold onto is our common title of "student" which leads us all to the classroom where somehow we have managed to become friends. We share pens and gym shoes and show empathy for the "slugs" left over from last night's difficult lab report. We are each in the process of making sure we don't lose ourselves to the commonplace standards of society. We support each other in the oddest of ways as we slowly crawl our way through each day never doubting that we'll see the same faces tomorrow.

High school is a period in life where you learn to appreciate the learning and set the stage to accomplish much greater things in life. The time goes by too fast and soon enough everyone will wonder what happened to all the acquaintances and people deemed long term friends. But as we are each thrown off the edge of a senior stardom, it is not without great memories of individual accomplishment, discovery and involvement . . . or at least I'd hope not.

A Devil pushes through the Copaigne defense

Although it was the first game, the Blue Devils came out to play. Leading the Devils in their last Homecoming game were seniors: Augie Abbatiello, Ian Barry, Brian Bradford, Mike Felician, David Fletcher, Ross Gottlieb, Troy Jerideau, Julian Lipscomb, Vincent McCoy, Davien Motley, Jake Soviero, and Terrell Toomer. The team marched onto their home field with no intention of being defeated. It was a warm, sunny day that gave promise to the powerful Devil running game led by freshman sensation Jamaal Collins, and anchored by powerhouse Brian Bradford, who between them scored all 27 points. Not to be outshined by the offense, the Devil defense held Copaigne to only a few yards and no points. After 48 minutes of play, the Huntington Blue Devils were victorious over Copaigne with a final score of 27 to 0.

MY SHARONA

I'LL NEVER LOVE THIS WAY AGAIN

Seniors

How do we even begin to say goodbye? We've known each other since we were little kids. The good old days, where to play—in the sandbox or on the swings—was our biggest concern. Now we are older, and as we reflect on our trivial worries, we wish we could go back to those days. We lived innocent, stress free and unburdened lives. We must move on, but always keep that innocence inside of you. It will be a tool that will unlock our happiest memories whenever we might find despair.

As we reflect upon the times we've known, all I see is change. We have all grown and developed into the adults we see before us now. As a class, we are united, but as individuals, we have all overcome our own obstacles. All of us have made it through with the help of each other. The people we've encountered here will always be a part of us. They have shaped us and grown with us throughout our years here. Whether their effort was positive or negative, it has made us stronger.

It will be so hard for us to let go. The security that we've known all our lives is about to vanish. We will be left with only our knowledge to rely upon. We will go out into this world and prove that we, our generation, can change the unjust. We will fight the best way we know how to make our own significant changes. Throughout our lives we will look back on these years and truly realize that these are the sweetest days we have known.

Together we stand, united as a class, but as individuals we offer the world a myriad of experience and knowledge. Together we have the power to prove that we are not a generation of slackers. We are the future and we've come to claim what is ours.

VALEDICTORIAN

As I reflect back on my high school years, it seems as if it were just yesterday that I entered Huntington High School. We were Freshmen; nervous, "little" newcomers who were both scared and admiring of the upperclassmen, particularly the "big" Seniors. Now we are the "big" Seniors. We've certainly matured together during our four years. Although we have all shared Huntington High School, each of us will leave with his or her own, unique experience. We've had glory days that we hoped would never end as well as disheartening days we would just as soon forget. We have each gotten involved in numerous activities, including those affiliated with school and those outside of school. During our four years, we have also associated with and formed relationships with many people. However, it is only the activities and the friends and the bonds that have held meaning to us and will thus last beyond high school, that have truly defined our own personal Huntington High School experience. We are nearing the end of our high school era and are poised and ready to embark on our own separate journeys. The majority of us will be off to colleges scattered across the nation, while others will enter the job market or the armed forces. As we enter these unfamiliar new circumstances, we will be leaving behind the stability and comfort of our high school years, we will again enter timidly, like Freshmen. Although we are physically leaving Huntington High School, the experiences we had will never be forgotten. Our memories will encompass those events, people and associations that have been significant to us. Thus, our time at Huntington High School will never fade out of our minds, it will instead accompany us on our new adventures.

SALUTATORIAN

Carly Prior

The time has come for us to leave Huntington High School and go our separate ways. Although each of our experiences here were unique, we are all coming out with a better knowledge and understanding of life than when we entered four years ago.

Through classes, sports, activities, clubs, jobs and relationships, high school has prepared us for the rest of our lives. Whether we are going to college or entering the world of work, we are all taking a large step toward becoming independent. We've grown together and developed into individuals with our own qualities and characteristics.

Now it is time to leave high school and enter the world that we have been prepared for. No matter where we end up in ten, fifteen, or even twenty years, we will all remember the unforgettable times spent at Huntington High School. Taking what we have learned and the memories of our experiences and friends, we embark on new journeys. I would like to wish the best of luck to the entire class of 1997.

JUNIORS

As the school year of 1997 approached, the Class of 1998 eagerly waited to meet the challenges of their junior year. We raced into the year having to meet the deadline for Homecoming '96 and to repeat our winning performance in the float competition. As is characteristic of our powerful class, we pulled together as a team and built another winning float in an unprecedented back-to-back victory for the class. Next, while battling our tough Junior courses and PSAT's, we took on the magazine drive. The fundraiser was a success as usual and added to our strong treasury.

Playfest was the next major challenge for the Junior class. Coming strong off Christmas break, the class rehearsed and worked hard to perform our best play yet. The performance took home some of the most prestigious awards including best play, best dance, and a host of other accolades. This was in keeping with our class spirit of excelling in every event we take part in. We carry the spirit and the success on through Battle of the Classes, Spring Fair, and the Class of 1998 hosted Junior-Senior Prom.

Our goal is now within sight as we approach our final year at Huntington High School. The world is wide open for us now. Each of us in our own way will contribute to the winning spirit of the Class of 1998.

SOPHOMORES

This year was fun. It was a great experience for me this year in Student Government. It was an experience organizing activities, arguing about them and finding new, creative ways to help cushion our class purse. We sold tacos last year, shorts, Christmas cards and pretzels this year. Our class had fun participating in Safe Halloween and won an abundance of accolades in Playfest.

The 10th grade class council was filled with great kids this year with tons of ideas. I strongly recommend everyone to attend as many meetings and activities as you can. We urge kids to participate and help, make friends and help us make money for our class for the prom next year. Class government is for everyone to enjoy and participate.

On a last note, I would like to specifically thank Mrs. Weeks, our class advisor, and certainly Mrs. Mitek as Student Government orchestrator. Also, special thanks to all my officers.

FRESHMEN

The Class of 2000 had been anxiously awaiting the beginning of our high school years.

Everyone was nervous and didn't know what to expect. At the end of August most of the class attended the freshmen orientation. There we met our STRONG HEARTS and caught up with friends. But that was just a taste of what the class of 2000 was about to experience.

We started off the year by building a float for Homecoming which depicted the decade of the '60s. There we faced some difficulties, but we pulled together and successfully completed our task. Our next event was Safe Halloween. There the freshmen class was busy working in the tattoo and face painting room. After Safe Halloween, we began to work on the production of "The So-called Real World" for Playfest 1997. Our play was a great success. We worked hard and had fun.

Now the year is closing fast and the Class of 2000 is looking forward to the years to come.

BLOOD DRIVE

This year's Blood Drive was captained by Allison Wright, Kim Canino, Scott Gruder, Erica Wagner and Julia Weber. The fall blood drive on November 1, 1996, was a huge success. The spring blood drive on March 7, 1997 was as successful. Giving blood saves lives. Starting this practice in school is an opportunity to try giving blood in a fun environment. Friends go together and support each other. The outstanding volunteers from the Red Cross also help to make blood drives something everyone looks forward to.

H.O.P.E.

The Huntington Outreach Peer Educators is a group that is new to Huntington High School this year. The main objective of this group is to educate students both in Finley and in the High School about HIV/AIDS. This program began last year, when members went to North Shore Hospital to be trained in this field. Besides holding workshops to educate students, H.O.P.E. was also responsible for the sale of AIDS t-shirts and the presentation of the high school AIDS quilt. The quilt was made by the students of Huntington High School for the students of Huntington High School. H.O.P.E. plans to continue adding to this quilt year after year. The AIDS Awareness t-shirts bear a poem written by Vito Russo, which has since become the motto of our club.

Student Government provides many activities for the students of Huntington High School. The Fall and Winter Homecoming dances were a success as usual and the Spring Dance, offered free to the students, was no exception. Safe Halloween provided fun and excitement for the young children of our district as well as for the students who participated. The two food drives provided much needed food for the community. Our new venture, Habitat for Humanity, was enthusiastically supported by the student body. Carnation Day is always a fun time in February and the year was rounded out with the Battle of the Classes.

Chris Lehnert (right) has his hand raised by referee Bill Starcke after he won the 140 lb. Huntington Tournament title. Lehnert finished his senior year by contributing numerous victories to the Blue Devil effort.

James Lule (top), was one of the top middleweights in Suffolk County for the second consecutive season, winning All-League and All-County honors. Lule, who won the league championship at 135 lbs., led all Blue Devils in takedowns and near falls and showed an explosive style of wrestling throughout the season.

Dave Rechul (left) locks up with Charles Reiter of Smithtown in the 189 lb. Suffolk County championship match which Rechul won, 2-1. The Huntington captain went 32-2 this year earning 215 points for his team in dual meets and tournaments and winning titles in the Huntington, Windsor, Suffern, Valley Central, League and Sextion XI tournaments. His 17 pins were second best on the team.

John Paganas (left) in a clinch with his Newfield opponent, was one of the top Blue Devils on the mat and once again won All-League and All-County status. He led the vaunted Huntington attack with 19 pins and expects to contend for the county title next season.

James Lule (center), surrounded by his teammates, holds the league tournament championship plaque. The Blue Devils also won the league dual meet title and tournament championship at Suffern and Valley Central. The team was a perfect 10-0 and ranked fifth in the state out of 600 high schools with wrestling programs.

Lou Gianì (right) is a freshman with a family tradition of greatness on the wrestling mat. His father was Huntington's first state champion, his uncle was an NCAA champion and his grandfather was a Pan Am gold medalist and 1960 Olympian. Lou won 20 varsity matches this season, was All-League, and led the team in escapes.

The Huntington Fencing team traveled to Centereach High School for the Suffolk County Fencing Championships. The boys team, seeded first, off their 13-0 league championship season, battled a tough Centereach team for a 38-36 win and the teams' first County title since 1992.

Going into the last round Huntington led Centereach 33-32. Two quick wins by sabre fencers David Maguire and Greg Poller raised the score to 35-32. Losses by sabre fencer Tom Hergenhan, and Foilist Mike Wittke, both their first of the day, put Centereach back in the hunt at 35-34. Blake Miller won a crucial foil bout to raise the score to 36-34. David Pariser-Gollon then lost to eventual county individual champion Matt Dreyer in Foil, team score 36-35. Scott Richards got off to a quick 4-1 start in the first epee bout, but the pressure of the day affected his performance, and he lost 4-5, costing him a place in the individual final, and the team a chance clinch a tie, score 36-36. Super sub Greg Giordano (season record 17-3) entered the meet at this crucial time, a win clinches a tie, a loss allows Centereach to claim a tie of its own. He won his first and only bout of the day 5-3 to earn a tie for the championship. Charles Hamann (6-0) then won the last bout of the day to clinch the title out right.

The members of the Suffolk County Boys Fencing Championship team are (records in the team portion) Tom Hergenhan (5-1), Greg Poller (5-1), David Maguire (5-1) all in sabre, Mike Wittie (5-1), Blake Miller (3-3), David Pariser-Gollon (1-5) in foil, Scott Richards (5-1), and Jay Engel (2-3), Greg Giordano (1-0), and Charles Hamann (6-0).

Later that day five Huntington Boys made the individual finals. In sabre all three Huntington fencers qualified for the final, the first time a single team qualified all its sabre fencers for the final in the history of the tournament. Senior Greg Poller and Junior David Maguire place

4th and 6th respectively. Junior Tom Hergenhan was undefeated in the final and was crowned the County Champion for Sabre. This was Huntingtons' first ever individual Sabre Champion. In foil, 9th grader Mike Wittie fenced excellently in his first county tournament and earned 5th place honors, the first ninth grader for Huntington in a final. In Epee, Senior Charles Hamann, visiting the finals for the third time in his career (6th in 1995, 2nd 1996), ended the day undefeated and with the county championship for epee. This was Huntington's third county epee champion in six years. (Darrin Fulco—1992, Robert Madden—1993, Hamann—1997)

The girls team entered day with a two meet winning streak, an 8-4 record, and a claim as the third best team in the county. Battling throughout the day the girls found themselves pitted against their arch rivals Newfield in the last round. Fencing brilliantly the girls posted a 3-1 record for the round and clinched the third spot in the county. The Team members are Corinne Meier (3-3), Katie Mailloux (5-1), Jean Hergenhan (4-2), and Kim Mirando (1-5).

In girls epee, four Huntington fencers competed. 11th grader Alexis Reganse, fencing well, advanced to the semi-final round when she failed to advance. The other three fencers each made the final six. 9th grader Kendall Morrelly-Bott finished 2-3 in final and earned a 5th place finish, this was Huntington's second 9th grade finalist ever. Junior Sara Ironman and Junior Christy Brothers finished with 3-2 records in a tie for first place. In fencing when this occurs, all the fencers tied must then fence again in an additional portion called a Barrage. Sara Ironman lost to teammate Christy Brothers to start the barrage and then lost two more close bouts to finish in Fourth place. Christy Brothers was 2-1 in the barrage losing a close match to the eventual champion to earn 2nd place.

THANKS FOR THE MEMORIES!

Michael, Follow your dreams! You can be "whatever" you want to be.
We love you
Dad, Mom, &
Alie

May your dreams turn to reality, your wishes come true, and may your love be shared with the world.

We love you so much,
Mommy, Miguel, Nadia, Marlo

In whatever you choose to do, know that we will always Love you Love, Mom, Dad, Sara, Scott, Susan

KERRY, CONGRATULATIONS!
LOVE,
MOM & DAD & MIKEY

*We all love you,
Mom, Dad Stephanie
&
David*

Dear Danielle,

We have watched you grow from an infant to a woman. In the eighteen years we have always believed in you. Now we can say how proud we are of you. You are everything a parent would want of a child. You are smart, loving, considerate, caring, beautiful and gentle but tough when you have to be and, most of all, hard working. When you want something, you work hard to achieve it. We know you will be successful so we will wish you the best of luck in achieving your goals. We all love you.

Dear Lori,
From the day you were born and until the end of time, you'll always be our little girl!
We could not be more proud that you are!

Love, Mom and Dad

To our Dearest Ivy...
Congratulations & Best Wishes!
May your dreams & visions soar to heights that will challenge and reward you. Your accomplishments are so many, and your talents so untapped. You've made us proud to be your parents.

Always & Forever with Love...
Mom, Dad, & Taryn

...the Best is yet to come

Congratulations
Megan
&
Kimberly

You should be very proud of your successes.

Daddy and I are very proud of you.

Your future is ahead of you.

Make the most of it; You will succeed.

All our Love, Mom, Dad, Nancy, Merry & Holly

*Did you ever know that you're my hero,
You're everything I wish I could be.
I can fly higher than an eagle,
You are the wind
beneath my wings.*

I love you,
—Katie

Kim—Wherever time will take us, wherever we may be, just remember how much you mean to me.
I love you!
Love, Haylee

Dear Karen, Go after your dreams! We are so proud of the special young woman you've become.

We love you,
Mom, Dad & Lisa

To All Our Girls Watching you all grow up has been a pleasure . . .

May your futures be as bright and beautiful as all of you!!

We love you
Haylee Sara!!

Congratulations!
With love from the Seltzer family

Congratulations Brianne, You've filled our lives with so much love, joy, and happiness.
You deserve only the best in the years to come. We're so proud of you!

All our love,
Mom, Dad, Jeremy and Louis

Climb high Climb far
 You'll reach the sky
 You'll aim the stars
 Love,
