& Dedication

Mr. Kenny Gilbert

Individuals are sometimes measured by the amount of hard work and good deeds they present. Though the acknowledgement is more apparent for some, there is always an anonymous "thank you" to be found for every great thing done. If individuals happen to be measured by their good deeds and hard work, then Mr. Gilbert is a tall man indeed! Though his respectable tough exterior shimmers in the hallways without wearing a flamboyant ice-skating uniform, he has done much more than just show off his flawless physicality's for everyone to admire. His enormous contribution to the drama program, the substitution of absent teachers and unpredictable, erratic humor are all aspects that form that name that sends a chill up the spines of some, and warmth in the hearts of others... Mr. Gilbert. All of his actions have been more than just acknowledged. They have been appreciated and respected. This is that "anonymous thank you" from the entire Huntington High School faculty, staff and students that he deserves as a result of his hard work. On a more personal note, I would like to thank Mr. Gilbert for all of his hard work, his unsuspected humor, his amazing ability to provoke the feeling of confidence within me, keeping his grizzled mountain-man beard, and most of all for his extremely good looks which I constantly worship secretly everyday (wink wink). Thank you for everything Gil.

Senior Nicole Palmer looked like a mermaid as she swam underwater in her pool.

Mike Taylor and many of his friends spend countless summer hours practicing their skateboarding tricks.

Whether it is spent at home, working, or traveling the world summer vacation is always welcomed and anticipated each school year. Huntington Students leave for the summer with hopes of rejuvenation, relaxation, some fun and some time in the sun.

Michelle Reiss went to Six Flags this summer and hung out with her friend Mike Bennet before he left for college.

Some Summer Fun...

& Time In The Sun!

Lauren DiPasquala traveled to Italy as did Daniela Badalamenti. Zack Lustberg went to camp in Baltimore and Washington DC and just chilled out this summer.

With all the distinctive and exciting experiences students returned to Huntington High School ready to start a new year relaxed and looking better than ever!

"In the summer I like to go to the beach, party and play sports."

Giovanni Quinones, Grade 11

"The perfect summer day for me is a day at the beach with my best friend and my big sunglasses."

Francesca Lombardo, Grade 12

Senior Derrick Northcote traveled to Alaska this past summer with his father and went an exhilarating salmon fishing trip.

Seniors Rebecca Rofield & Jayson Santiago spent a few lazy days soaking up the sun at Robert Moses State Park.

Friends, Christella Francois & Shameika Hanson have a similar style and even shop at some of the same stores.

Mia Parziale & Christine Russo look like they stepped right out of the pages of Vogue in their fashionable baby doll dresses.

The world of fashion changes rapidly and often revisits the past. From year to year we see new styles emerge. While we can always be sure the typical jeans and a tee will be present we can also be just as sure that trendsetters will be there to usher in new trends.

This year we see 80's inspired fashion making a strong impression on the students at Huntington High School.

With Some Style...

What We Wear!

While spandex and florescent colors were not all that long ago considered a thing of the past they have once again come into style. Of course we see this trend altered and updated to fit a new and more modern sensibility. The question is what's next? What will the styles of tomorrow be & will the past be the inspiration once again. I guess we will have to wait & see.

"I like to have fun with what I wear. New day, new style."

-Yvette Hallman, Grade 10

All over print sweatshirts and clothing are very popular this year. Senior Herbert Reyes & sophomore Chris Sandoval handsomely model the latest trend.

Daisy Kramer & Eva Valerio waved their arms in the air to get the crowd pumped up.

The Huntington Highsteppers are always able to get the crowd excited and full of school spirit.

Huntington spirit fills the air during the week leading up to homecoming. There is no doubt that during spirit week we get a true sense of the energy and dedication students teachers & faculty have for the school.

It is so nice to see everyone come together to support the school. Many have expressed the desire to have more events throughout the year like spirit week and pep rally.

We Have Spirit...

How About You?

There is no mistaking that blue and white are the colors of choice here in Huntington. Students adorn the colors like it is the dress code. The unity that has become apparent in our school is something that most schools can only hope for. Thanks to events like Challenge Day and Rachel's Challenge we have a greater understanding of one another and it shows.

"School spirit is something that I encourage everyone to have year round!"

-Megan Smith, Grade 10

"The best part of spirit week was the Homecoming Dance because I am such a good dancer."

-Ben Kitzen, Grade 9

"I wish there was a pep rally every season to get everyone excited about whats going on in our school."

We are family! All my brothers, sisters and me! It is not uncommon to see pairs or groups of siblings congregating with one another in the halls. Many, many students at Huntington High School have siblings who attend school with them.

For most, it is a positive experience to have a sibling in the same school. Perks include underclassmen being able

The cafeteria offers a wide selection of food to choose from.

Food has become a hot topic this school year. With the new health and wellness regulations we have seen some big changes in the food offered at school. When you go to make a purchase from one of the many snack vending machines you will no longer find an array of chips and cookies. You will now encounter granola bars and low calorie choices. Many are embracing the new choices but some miss their favorite snacks which have been left out. An even more widely discussed and debated topic dealing with the new regulations is the "NO FOOD" in the classroom policy. Celebrations for birthdays and holidays will have to be had without the familiar treats and tasty food we are so used to sharing.

Feed The Craving... It's On The Plate!

"My favorite place to go for lunch is T-Bell, hands down. It is the only place you can have $2.00 & do major work."

-Ian Kaplan, Grade 12

"I wish I was eating something better than this sandwich. Perhaps a big brownie sundae would have made me happier."

-Molly Smith, Grade 10

Rant, Rave, Review

"This new Health and Wellness Regulation put in place by NYS is a total bummer. I used to really enjoy celebrating occasions in class with food, drinks and festivities. Not being able to do this anymore takes away from the camaraderie built between students when note taking is not taking place. While the concern for health, wellness and sharing of food is equally important, I believe that this rule may have been taken too far!"

Huntington High School is well know for having an outstanding athletic program. Every year we have several teams who win division and county championships. Year after year our athletes prove themselves to be worthy of such high standards .

Being part of a team is much more than just winning. The comradery that is built on the field can last a lifetime.

We Play hard...

We Play to Win!

Working together for a common goal and spending hours and hours together truly create a special bond.

Being an athlete teaches you patience, perseverance and hard work. Most everyone involved in sports considers themselves lucky to be part of the experiance.

"Out of all the sports I play my favorite is basketball because it is the most fun and our team is so close."

-Casey Scully, Grade 12

Huntington High School has an outstanding art and music program headed by Ms. Joan Fretz. The school district considers the programs a source of pride.

Art students are lucky enough to choose from over fifteen different courses that can broaden their creative minds. Each year Huntington art students win numerous competitions proving that they are leaders in the field among their peers.

Create & Inspire...

Sights & Sounds!

The music students work hard year round to put together amazing performances. There are also several extra curricular musical performance groups students may participate in such as Chamber Orchestra, Jazz Choir and Wind Ensemble. Sarah Conte says "band is a lot of hard work but it is worth the effort." We can certainly see all their hard work is paying off.

"I love taking photography because it lets me express my creative side. This year I am the photo intern and I get to help new students fall in love with the subject matter."

-Jenny Hannan, Grade 12

"I was section leader for marching band this year and I had a lot of fun helping upcoming freshmen playing their music."

-Alex Hajney, Grade 12

The event was well attended and all the hard work Ms. Amy and the class of 2008 put in was clear. The beautiful location and great weather made for a picture perfect evening.

All Dressed Up...

And Off To Prom!

Students danced the night away and dined on fine cuisine. After a long night of festivities students left the prom and headed to after prom parties. Popular after prom locations included Montauk, NYC, and the Jersey Shore. Once back in school the next week it was fun to share memories and look through all the quickly printed prom pics!

"I had fun at the dance but after-prom was definitely the best part of the night."

Valedictorian

About Me:

My grandfather once said, "Life is a series of experiences shared with others. Choose the experiences and people to enrich your life." As we leave Huntington High School, many new opportunities lie before us, and it is up to us to decide which path to take. This decision seems to carry an enormous weight as we choose which college to attend or for which job to apply. Looking back, our lives in high school were not based solely on our grades and the classes we chose to take; rather, they were founded on how we used our time, applied the knowledge we gained, and the friends we made along the way. In this sense, it is not the college or career that we select that will determine our happiness, but what we do while we are there. In life, seek out new adventures, experience new things, and speak to the individuals you meet – the unexpected can sometimes be the most rewarding. "Demain est moins à découvrir qu'à inventer" - G. Berger. In English, "Tomorrow is less to be discovered than to be created." Class of 2008, create your tomorrows and never abandon your dreams. Congratulations!

About Me:

High school has been a time of tremendous growth for all of us. The last four year have been a whirlwind, full of school concerts, Regents and AP Exams, Playfests, and events so uniquely Huntington that they will forever link us back to our time here. Whether writing for The Dispatch, participating in the athletic program, or acting in the Drama Club, each member of our class has made themselves known and contributed to the school community. A bond has been formed, in spite of our disparate interests and activities, through the enthusiastic and distinctive personality of the Class of 2008.

One of the greatest strengths of our school has been the diversity of opinions and backgrounds that we have encountered in our classmates. Regardless of whether we will continue on to universities, the military, or fulfilling careers, the friendships and talents we've developed at Huntington High School will continue to propel us to achieve our goals. The multiplicity of ideas and personalities within our school's community has shaped us in ways we have yet to realize, but that will serve to expand our minds even after we have embarked on our lives after high school. We have learned from one another, whether in the classroom, on the field, or at rehearsal and those lessons will remain with us forever.

Congratulations Class of 2008! Savor the exciting possibilities for your futures and best of luck!

About Me:

As I look back on my time here at Huntington High School, I realize that I have many people to thank. There are my teachers who have challenged my mind, my parents who have been supportive of my efforts, but above all my friends and classmates who have been there every step of the way. The Class of 2008 is much more than just a group of students. Together we have achieved so much and exceeded so many expectations. Now, as I write this farewell, I have come to the conclusion that only together we were able to accomplish our goals. We have watched each other learn and grow throughout our lives. Although four years is only a fraction of the amount of time we have spent together, it is these past four years in which the biggest change has occurred. During our high school career we have all grown in to our individual identities, setting the foundation for the people we are to become. From talented artists and musicians, to amazing athletes, to brilliant young intellectuals, we all possess qualities that have aided in making the Class of 2008 a success. Yes, we have been through many challenges but through it all we have triumphed. The Class of 2008 is an exceptional group of young men and women and because of you I have enjoyed every moment I've spent in HHS. Within all of you I have found comfort and friendship and for that I thank you. Now as we prepare to take the next step in our lives, I know that the time we have spent together will allow us to put our best foot forward and face our futures as confident, intelligent young adults. I wish you the best of luck in all of your future endeavors, and once again thank you for making the last four years an unforgettable experience. Congratulations Class of 2008 and good luck.

About Me:

I am truly proud of every one of us, because we all have accomplished so much in our young lives. The Class of 2008 includes some incredible people, whether it be in the classroom, the athletic fields, the studio or the stage. We are talented, capable, and driven, and there is no doubt in my mind each and every one of us will go on to be amazing in whatever path we chose. I want to take this opportunity to thank those who were consistently involved. You committed countless hours and energy to the Class of 2008, and without you, we would not have been successful in our fund-raisers, activities, and charitable projects. Your effort does not go unappreciated. I'm proud of us, and you should be as well. To all, best wishes.

Seniors Speak Up!

Q: If you could be any famous person, who would it be and why?

A: "I would be Gunther. Who can resist his wavy mullet and his pencil thin mustache? I'll tell you what; I can't."

-Greg James, Gr. 12

"The most inspirational moment in my life would probably be high school in general because you learn and realize things. You look back at what you've done before high school and you look forward to your future after high school. You learn from the past and use it in the future."

-Priscilla Ramirez, Grade 12

"The best part about being a senior is that all of the four years of hard work has finally paid off. Now it's all up to me, to make the decision about what I plan on doing with my future."

-Darlos Francisque-Cheriel Gr. 12

Q: Who is the one person who means the most to you and why?

A: "Gaby Fulton means the most to me because she has always been there for me weather I've been up or down. We have been through a lot over the short period of time I have known her. I know that she would do anything to help me. She is my best friend."

-Christian Calderaro, Gr.12

"What I am looking forward in graduating is that I am getting ready to step into a new world. There are going to be new things I am going to have to face in life. What I am most looking forward to is going to college and meeting new people. Also hopefully moving out of the house into an apartment and not having to worry about my parents being on my back about how late I am coming home and how dirty my room is. Another thing that I am looking forward to is getting a car that my dad promised me that he's going to get me for graduation."

Dear Sophomore Class of 2010,

Hey guys! I can't believe we've completed half of high school already. From our float parties in July to our absolutely amazing performance at Playfest, it's been incredible. We have a phenomenal class, even though there are times that we get pretty tired of each other and the constant line quoting from the same movies. I'm honored to be president of the Class of 2010 during our sophomore year because I do love you guys and hopefully I've made choices that reflect each of your wishes as I had intended. Thank you all for being yourselves, the truly lovely people that you are! Also thank you Schwendy for being the best advisor ever made! Again, I am enamored by you guys. The rest of our high school careers will rock!

Class President,
-Lena Freed

The Class of 2011

Ms. Pyzocha, Michelle Byrne, Lauren Corcoran, Cody Jacobs, Aliyah Cohen, Mia Rienzo, Ally Kiley, Mrs. Oranges

Dear Class of 2011,

Walking through those double doors, that first day of school, I was left with a feeling of curiosity as to how the year would turn out. What twists and turns might our freshmen year take? Starting off to an exciting year with Homecoming, everyone came together for "float party's" at Heckscher Park. I have seen my fellow classmates changing everyday, growing, learning, and adapting. Every individual that makes up our charismatic class, brings forth something positive to make us unforgettable. Although there will always be obstacles one must overcome, let's strive to make our high school career one to remember.

Congratulations To A Great Beginning,
Class President,
-Cody Jacobs

“Hey Swan, how is the Newscast coming along?” -Ms. Piffard

Faculty & Staff

Dear Seniors,

It has been such a rewarding experience for the teachers and administrators to work with you during the four years of your high school experience and to guide you in your academic development.

The time has come to put to use what you have learned and to embark on a future filled with continued learning and achievements. I encourage you to keep in touch with any of the adults with whom you have developed a supportive relationship over the years. I hope you will remember your high school career with fondness and appreciation.

I wish all of you great success and the ability to influence our society for the better.

Sincerely,
Carmela Leonardi, Ph.D.

To our dear Elizabeth:

From the moment you were born you exceeded all of our hopes of what having a daughter meant. The birthday parties, vacations, trips to Starbucks, holidays, the living room dance performances, the numerous viewings of "Breakfast at Tiffany's," a crazy dog called Griffin, childhood friends, your amazing sense and love of fashion, and your unique sense of humor; what else can we say. If the rest of your life is anything like the start, you will always be truly blessed. May the joy you have brought to others and to us guide you and light your way.

All our love,
Mom, Dad and Emily

If You Have a Dream by: Unknown

Don't wait for some distant day to come,
it may be too late before you've even begun.
Not everyone will agree with what you decide.
Be true to yourself first and foremost.
The only important thing in life is what you do with the time you spend here on earth.
Don't be afraid to follow your desires,
they are not silly nor selfish.
Take the time and do what makes you feel alive.
Leave your fears and regrets in the past,
for this is where they belong.
Don't cloud today with things that can't be undone.
You have no more control over yesterday or tomorrow,
than you do the raging of your passions.
Do not quiet these dreams nor quench your desires.
For if you do, your journey is ended.
You have only today to begin anew and follow your dreams.
For in the end all we have are our memories.
When the twilight comes to us, let there be,
No excuses, no explanations, no regrets!

"I love living in Huntington because we are so close to the water. I love the beach. I my favorite!" -Maya Bengston, gr. 11
