

Dedication

John J. Finello

John J. Finello is Huntington through and through. He attended elementary and secondary school in the district, graduating from Huntington High School in 1968, and has worked his way up through the teaching and administrative ranks over the years.

Mr. Finello joined Huntington's faculty in 1972 and was a classroom teacher at Huntington Elementary School through June 1986, when he was named the district's elementary science and computer coordinator. In 1988 he assumed new responsibilities as assistant principal of Huntington Elementary and remained in that position until 1991 when he became principal of Washington Elementary School.

Mr. Finello assumed his current position in July 2001 and has worked to improve all facets of the district, including classroom instruction, academic offerings, facilities, and extracurricular activities. He has initiated long term budget priorities and planning along with the active pursuit of available financial grants.

After a lifetime of involvement and service in the Huntington school district we are proud to honor Mr. John J. Finello with this yearbook dedication. Thank you so much for all your time and your unwavering commitment to our community.

The best of Summer

During the hot days of summer Theresa Spohrer & Shayne Larkin stay cool by swimming in the pool.

Becca Lader & Katie Levittan love spending time together going to concerts as much as possible.

Steve Correll soaked in the sun & spent countless hours of his summer at the beach and boating.

Hot Summer

In the heat of the summer everyone finds ways to refresh and relax!

Photographer EJ Connell snapped tons of photos of his friends including Mike Marchetta perfecting biking tricks.

Dan Smith & Haley Garofalo got the short end of the stick with seating arrangements in the overcrowded car on the way to Splish Splash Water Park.

David Lillienstein makes a splash jumping off of a friend's boat.

Yaneli Martinez & Sarah Unger hang out and relax while camping at Hither Hills in Montauk.

Months & months go into planning prom. From booking the location to finding teachers to chaperone, the prom is a grandiose undertaking. All the preparation was well worth it. Everything was perfect. Prom night is a night you remember for the rest of your life.

Prom dates, dresses, tuxedos and limos were all on the "must

Groups of friends and couples gathered before prom at neighborhood homes to take pre-prom photos. Once on their way the excitement built and everyone was ready to hit the dance floor. It was definitely a night to remember.

You got the look!

Liz DeMaio, Alanna Tieman, Maya Horton, & Haley Garofalo posed for a quick picture before meeting up with friends.

Richie Gray looked dazdelling at pre-prom in his tuxedo and patent leather shoes!

Dan McGale and Yvette Hallman were super excited to finally get to the prom after hours of preparation.

Sean Harkins, Tash Stollmack & Dante Corrocher looked dazzling and had a great time together at the prom.

Calvin Bolter was one of many underclassmen who attended the prom.

Theresa Spohrer found a beautiful bush of flowers for the backdrop of her pre-prom photos.

Girls' swim team member, Samantha Mohr took on her opponent at the swim match this past fall and prevailed!

Kianna Freitag proves hard to catch as the other team chases her down the field.

Tom Smith keeps active skating in town. He spends many hours perfecting his hardflip.

Action

Keep your bodies in motion

Anybody watching from the sidelines can't help but want to be involved. Sports are a great way to stay in shape, make friends and be part of something bigger than yourself.

Despite demanding practice schedules and grueling workouts, any member of a team will tell you that the benefits are well worth what one must endure. Competition is healthy. We see people who are involved in competitive sports excel in all aspects of their lives.

Overall, getting involved in sports can benefit you in so many ways. You learn valuable lessons, and gain life experience and are able to keep your body healthy. Sounds like a win-win!

On the soccer field Meredith McCourt proved to be unstoppable.

Calvin Bollar proved to be a very valuable member of the Varsity Football team this year.

Memorable Moments

"On soccer this past year we had a very emotional moment when we scored and won the game in overtime."

Steven Ulloa

"Our field hockey team is incredibly close and we bonded and spent tons of time together. Saran wrap!

Madison Biernacki

"The most memorable moment of this year's football season was beating Harborfields at homecoming."

Ben Kitzen

Zach Teplin is one of the very best artists to pass through Huntington High School. He has even had his own solo show already at age 17!

Sitting with Mr. Giachetti for a private lesson, Kelly McConnell perfects her french horn skills.

Student Gabby Ferreira takes several art classes and plans to study art in college.

Joe D'Esposito is determined to learn his violin part by the end of class.

Q & A

Do you plan on continuing to study art after you graduate high school?

"I plan on having a double major in college in graphic design and architecture with a minor in theatre design. I just really want to study something I am passionate about."

Bo-Ashely Brindley

1. Mrs Worth's Class is hard at work to produce their sketches.
2. In chorus, students enjoy singing with their classmates and learning new tunes.
3. Maya Horton has excellent skills in painting!

The art and music classes are the backbone of the Huntington School District. Creative studies provide students a way to enhance their learning and get hands on with a craft. Art and music electives are among the favorites of the student body. Class space fills up quickly with all the demand. At any given time of the school day you can walk down the hallway in the music wing and find student practicing their instruments or walk into an art room and see students creating beautiful works of art. It is easy to see why the students want to take these classes. The teachers are great and the atmosphere lends itself to a special kind of learning. In no other place can you learn as much about yourself than through artistic expression.

You've got The Look

Harrison Rose is well known for having a great sense of style and being well put together every day!

Vibrant colors and a scarf give Kayla Petruzzelli a very finished look.

Boots and gladiator sandals are among the popular footwear for 2010.

Embroidered pant pockets are what is cool this year and Dashawn Raynes has a great pair with a detailed design.

Jeff Phelan loves to wear large graphic on his shirts.

Fashion Forward

It is obvious that Huntington High School students are interested in style and wearing things that are fashionable. Bright colors, boots, embroidered designs and graphic tee's are the most popular trends of 2010.

Vibrant plaid designs are among the most popular trends this year. The look definitely works for Theresa Spohrer, Katie Levittan & Haley Garofalo.

With diverse senses of style Victoria Vitanza, Yvette Hallman, Gabby Ferreira & Shae Scully all look fashion forward.

TRENDS

you wish would go away!

"I'm not a fan of when boys wear super skinny jeans."

Liz McGovern

"I personally don't like rhinestone belts. I think they look tacky."

Fransisco Villatoro

Of course we spend most of our time at Huntington High School immersed in school work, but when we have some down time, fun is sure to ensue. Taking a break and letting off some steam is a necessary part of getting through each school day. The few moments we spend in the halls in between periods and lunch time are a great way to clear your head & catch up with friends. Seniors are lucky to be permitted off campus for lunch and definitely make the most of the privilege. On any given day you can be assured that a few Huntington High School student's are at the Bay Deli, Rosa's or Taco Bell for lunch. Underclassmen catch up with one another in the school cafeteria or just by passing in the hallways.

In our free time

When we're not in class

Lena Freed's toungue turned blue from her delicious lunchtime treat.

Headed back from a quick trip to the Big H, Connor Pufahl, Cassidhe Lofaso & Isabel Sorrentino have a smorgasbord of food with them.

Cassandra Franco takes some time out in the hallway to relax.

Eating in a hurry to make sure she got back to school on time, Jenn Hajney stuffs her mouth full of fries. Being allowed to leave school for lunch is one of Jenn's favorite parts of being a senior.

During 5th period lunch Jonathan Patron & Oscar Ortiz have a good laugh.

Alyssa Crawley is running away after giving David Lillienstien a friendly wack in the stomach. Who knows what payback might be!

Will Jenne, John Jenne & Brendan Jenne are 3 brothers well known for being super nice guys with a great sense of humor.

Haley & Scott Garofalo are finally in the same school together. Haley is a senior & Scott is a freshman.

Terrell & Derrick Sherrod are both very involved with HHS football.

Siblings

Keeping it in the family

Sometimes siblings are easy to spot because they look so much alike but other times the family connection will take you by surprise. There are so many groups of siblings here at Huntington High School and it is not uncommon to see them together in the halls. Some lucky underclassmen get the added benefit of having a brother or sister that is a senior. Grabbing a ride in the morning instead of waiting for the bus is ideal. The Smith family has had dozens of siblings and cousins here at Huntington High School. Both past and present generations have made a huge impact on the school community. Haley Garofalo and her brother Scott have not been in the same school building since Haley was in the 5th grade. Haley likes having her brother here so she can look out for him.

Becca Lader's younger brother Ryan is lucky to get a ride to school everyday from his sister!

Nope, you aren't seeing double. Mercedes & Katrina Trejos are identical twins!

Sister & brother Melissa & David Rosenberg love each other tons!

Sarah-Kate & Megan Smith are cousins to Molly & Alex Smith. Not only are they related but they are all great friends. True story.

"AP Language and composition is my favorite subject this year because we cover really interesting topics."

Ryan Ackerman studies hard so that her can get into a good college.

Eric Ferber is deep in thought, concentrating on the lesson at hand in his social studies class.

Michaela Brown has great grades because she puts a lot of effort in during all her classes.

Lonnie James III is working hard to make sure his lab is complete by the end of the period in physics class.

Academics

Time to learn...

Paul Armanda is captivated by the teacher's visual demonstration.

Without a doubt academics are the primary focus of each and every school day. Students work hard to acquire the knowledge necessary to do well in class and make their way onto a good college. The teachers at Huntington High School are the cream of the crop and always make time if you need extra help. There is ample chance for everyone here to do exceptionally well with some effort. From introductory to AP classes there are a wide variety of courses available to choose from. Each student with the help of their guidance counselor is able to make a schedule that is just right for them.

Emilie Pugliese makes sure her notes cover all the topics presented by her teacher in Pre-Calculus.

We have School Spirit

Our school mascot, the Blue Devil (aka, Ian Coneys) takes a leap into the air to get the crowd going.

The boys soccer team had the crowd on their feet as they danced to Single Ladies by Beyonce Knowles.

Shira Moskowitz can't contain her enthusiasm at the homecoming parade!

Ryan Mulligan leads the football team in a cheer to get them ready for the game.

Go Blue Devils

We join together and rally for our teams. We support one another in all our endeavors. School spirit is the tie that bonds.

At the fall pep rally everyone was excited and entertained by the Step Team. They put on a great show.

Students wore pink to school to show their support of Breast Cancer awareness. JR Flores, Kevin Feliciano, Sarah Lockwood, Rosie Alter, were just a few of the students who participated in this event!

“SHE SAID”

“I was really excited to see how many more people got into spirit week. It seems like there is actually real H-TON pride.”

When we were in the fourth grade a few seniors travelled down to the elementary school to lend a helping hand to the school play. I remember seeing them for the first time and thinking how tall they were and how old they looked. High school seemed eons away. I'm sure we've all had moments like that, when we've thought about what's to come in the future and it seems so far off that we can relax in comfort to think that it will be years upon years before we ever have to worry about it. And now here we are at the end of four years of an experience about which movies are made and books are written. Did the time really go by that quickly? Wasn't it just a few years ago that we were going out to recess and putting our chairs up on our desks at the end of the day? Yet somehow it happened and miraculously we managed to survive the strange combination of wonder and horror that came to be known as high school. We dealt with the boatloads of homework and the breakdowns over broken relationships. We survived the impossible tests and the friendship crises. And we sometimes even remembered what school was about and learned something. We learned about equations and novels and organisms and languages. We learned how to avoid the creation of poisonous gases in the chemistry laboratory and how to stay awake during first period classes. But most of all, we learned about each other. About how many talents people have and how many new people there are to meet. About how nice the quiet girl who sits in the corner of the classroom is and about the difference a smile and a hug can make to the neighbor in your science class who's feeling blue. And as we learned about each other, we managed to grow into those mature young adults I had seen helping out with a fourth grade play.

Thus it appears our time has come to leave the place we've spent so many hours of our lives in for the past four years. For the first time we'll be on our own in the phenomena some of us have heard referred to as the "real world." Our BFFs and our favorite clubs will be far away as we each embark upon a journey that will leave high school far behind. No more listening to the marching band keeping rhythm ninth period or the crackle of the intercom announcing that "Due to inclement weather..." No more incredible performances at Playfest or maddening minutes spent frantically trying to open a stubborn locker. Instead we'll be off at a college or travelling or starting a career, ready to form new friendships, meet new people, and have new experiences. I have absolute faith that each and every member of our class will be successful in anything they wish to pursue and so I offer my most sincere wishes of luck to an incredible group of people. Congratulations Class of 2010 in all that has been and will be achieved!

Sr. Class President

Meredith McCourt

It's crazy to think back to the first day we walked into Huntington High School, just as freshman. The years have flown by, and here we are ready to graduate and move on to bigger and better things. The past four years have certainly been memorable for the Class of 2010. It seemed we were never able to master the art of constructing a Homecoming Float, and Battle of the Classes was never a strength of ours. However, we always managed to have a great time participating in these school functions. Graduating and moving on to the real world is a bittersweet moment for most of us. We are very excited to start a new chapter in our lives, but sad to leave behind the times we shared at Huntington High School. I know our class will be very successful, and we all have bright futures ahead of us. I wish the best for everyone in the Class of 2010!

Salutatorian

Alanna Tieman

As a class, we have grown up together, witnessing each others' ups and downs. We have been there for the good times and the bad times. Because of this we have come to know and appreciate each other. When looking around our school, I see so many familiar faces. Whether looking at the face of a best friend or just someone passed in the hallway each day, it is sad to think that soon we will no longer be seeing these same faces every day. We have all come from different places and different lifestyles, with different views and opinions to offer. Soon we will all be going our separate ways. But for these past few years of our lives, we have all been united at Huntington High School. We have shared these same hallways in which we have experienced heartbreaks and disappointments and we have experienced first kisses and excitements. The bonds that have been formed here and the memories we have made have shaped the people we have become. These memories and experiences will help to carry us through whatever challenges we will face as we go about starting the next chapter of our lives. Congratulations Class of 2010!

Happenings*

Remembering 9/11

Eight years after the horrific events that occurred in New York City on September 11th, 2001, we paused to remember the lives that were lost and honor the heroes of that terrible day. We gathered as a community in tribute to make sure we never forget the events of that day.

Students recited poems they wrote themselves about September 11th. The poems were read over the loudspeaker during the morning announcements. The student body and faculty reacted strongly to the beautiful poems. We truly have some very talented students here at Huntington High School.

Pep Rally

A pep rally is a gathering of people, typically students, before a sports event. The purpose of such a gathering is to encourage school spirit and to support members of the team for which the rally is being thrown. Pep rallies are often very loud and have a lot of excitement to keep all the students pumped for the upcoming game and to cheer the team on.

This year's pep rally truly lived up to everyone's expectations. The step team wowed everyone as usual, and the boys' soccer team got everybody pumped up! The girls' soccer team spent hours preparing for their performance to the song "Go Getta," and the crowd responded with great enthusiasm.

Float Night

Float night is one of the many traditions of homecoming at Huntington High School. It brings students together with their classes to make their float out of paper flowers and wire. Every class prepares a float which corresponds with the Homecoming theme that changes every year.

This year at Huntington High School, the homecoming theme was "movies." The seniors class' movie was "Finding Nemo," the junior class' was "Jaws," the sophomore class' was "Monster's Inc.," and the freshman class' was "Kung Fu Panda." Everyone did an amazing job, and luckily we didn't get rained out.

Homecoming

Homecoming is an annual tradition of the United States. High schools come together, usually at the beginning of fall, to welcome back students and alumni. It is built around a central event, such as a banquet and a game of football played on the school's home football field. This is then followed by a parade featuring the school's marching band.

Seniors gather around their award-winning float, "Finding Nemo." Fully equipped with razor sharp shark teeth, this float was quite the accomplishment for the Senior class. The junior class float represented "Jaws," the sophomores' represented "Monster's Inc.," and the freshmen represented "Kung Fu Panda."

Fall Dance

The Homecoming Dance is usually the culminating event of the week. It is a formal or informal event, held at the school. The venue is decorated, and either a disc jockey or band is hired to play music. At high schools, the homecoming dances are usually held in the high school gymnasium.

Students gather around to take in the great moves demonstrated on the dance floor. The DJ had everyone moving from the very first moment of the homecoming dance till its ended. Students showed up dressed to impress and everyone who attended agreed that it was a lot of fun and they were glad they went.

Halloween

Halloween is an annual holiday celebrated on October 31. Halloween activities include trick-or-treating, wearing costumes, attending costume parties, carving jack-o-lanterns, ghost tours, bonfires, bobbing for apples, visiting haunted attractions, playing pranks, telling scary stories, and watching horror films.

Richard Fernandez sports a particularly hairy chest as he poses for a photo in chemistry class. Tons of Huntington High school students and staff came to school dress in costumes. Some of the highlights were Cole Peters as a robot, Lou Puca as Miss America, Jake Fleisig as a kangaroo, Ali Weiland as Cruella de Vil, and Brian Pechar as Manny Rimeriez.

Breast Cancer Walk

There are various walks held all across the country to raise money for breast cancer research. Most participants sport pink attire to show their support. People from all over town attended and donated to further the research of breast cancer.

Diana Frank and Richard Gray made a great team at the breast cancer walk. They stuck together to stay warm while running through the chilly fall air. Getting together as a school community to support such a great cause is something we can all be proud of. So many of us have someone in our lives who are battling disease and we want to show them we care.

Blood Drive

A blood donation occurs when a healthy person voluntarily has blood drawn. The blood is used for transfusions for people who need it. Most blood donors are unpaid volunteers who give blood for a community supply. Many donors donate as an act of charity.

Karly Kocis is all smiles as she does her part donating for the blood drive. A lot of blood was collected throughout the day from participating students and staff. The momentary discomfort felt from the prick of the needle is greatly outweighed by the knowledge that we are helping those in need in our community.

Poetry Cafe

A poetry reading is a performance of poetry, normally given on a small stage in a café or book store. Unless otherwise indicated in advance, poetry readings almost always involve poets reading their own work or reciting it from memory. Poetry readings often involve several readers.

Fellow students share poems read aloud at the poetry cafe. The poems proved to be very sophisticated and showed how creative our student body is. The turnout was great this year and the organizers of the Poetry Cafe plan to continue on with this wonderful tradition making it better and better every year.

Challenge Day

The Challenge Day mission is to provide youth and their communities with experiential programs that demonstrate the possibility of love and connection through the celebration of diversity, truth, and full expression.

Students gathered in the gymnasium this fall to participate in Huntington High School's very own Challenge Day. Students were challenged to be the change that they want to see in the world. Throughout the day the students engaged in several activities that embraced the vision that every child lives in a world where they feel safe, loved and celebrated.

- Challenge Day Norms
1. Be inclusive
  2. No put downs or teasing
  3. Compliments & love encouraged
  4. I listen with your ears & heart
  5. Be open minded
  6. Drop the water!
  7. Be the Change
- Be THE Change

Natural Helpers Retreat

Natural Helpers is a national program. Those selected are a cross section of students identified through an anonymous school wide survey. They are representatives of all the subgroups in the school community as students that other students can go to in times of need.

Matt Corcoran, Kelsey Iwanicki and Annie Minoff are all smiles as they train incoming Natural Helpers at the retreat. The Natural Helpers retreat this year was held at Finley Middle School. Students spent the entire weekend together learning the skills needed to make them successful Natural Helpers.

Meeting The First Lady

First Lady Michelle Obama invited a group of Huntington fashion students to Washington, D.C. to participate in events surrounding the donation of her inaugural gown to the Smithsonian's National Museum of American History.

Last March, Huntington fashion program teachers Kristin Singer and Amy Worth challenged their students to create an inaugural dress design that would reflect Mrs. Obama's essence and spirit. This spring the students met with leading fashion designers and participated in numerous events, including meeting Mrs. Obama.

Holiday Volleyball

The day before December break, seniors gathered in the gym from periods 5-9 to participate in the Holiday Volleyball tournament. Teams were chosen from each gym class and on the day of the event, team members wore matching outfits. Many of the team outfits were themed and caught the attention of fellow students.

One of the stand-out teams of the day was the Jersey Shore volleyball team. Members included; Clare Tonks, Ryan Greenhill, Chris McArdle, Dan Owen, Andrea Meyer, Kelsey Iwanicki and Sam Widerman. Everyone had so much fun, it was the perfect way to spend the day before break.

Playfest Seniors

The senior playfest stole the show, bringing the audience through the wild west with best pals Rex and Red. Frogs were fought and acceptance was sought by the duo and the rest of the gang. The play had a very positive message and was a real crowd pleaser. The seniors truly set new standards for a great playfest.

The seniors went out with a bang with their last playfest, "A Horse of a Different Color." The opening dance scene immediately caught the attention of the crowd, and hilarious one-liners kept the laughs coming. The humorous writing skills of Ian Coneys & Jake Fleisig made this play one of a kind!

Playfest Juniors

The junior playfest tells the adventure of a group of misfits led by Tiger Woods to defeat the one and only Mr. Peanut. Through their adventures they encounter various characters such as Speedy Gonzalez, Yosemite Sam and the very intimidating Rattle Snake Gang. The play brought warmth to your hearts and tears to your eyes from hilarity.

The juniors came through this year with an instant classic with, "Tiger Texas Ranger." The characters that got the most attention from the audience was The Rattle Snake Gang played by Thomas Corrao and Joseph D'Esposito. The juniors definitely deserved Best Script with this hilarious adventure.

Playfest Sophomores

For lack of better inspiration, the sophomores did something completely new. The sophomore playfest was simply a play about writing playfest. In addition to having a play about playfest, they also included characters from the popular TV show "Jersey Shore," such as Mike ("The Situation").

The sophomore play used many colorful characters in their play. Some characters were very recognizable by the audience and caught a lot of attention, such as Santa Clause, "The Situation," Snookie and the bunnies.

Playfest Freshmen

The freshmen playfest told the story of a group of friends' search for the magic cactus. Alex Smith's dancing brought the play to life with her excellent rendition of the "Hoedown Throwdown." With experience, we know that each year their plays will get better and better.

Laura Ironman sported a baby throughout the play to poke fun at the movie, "The Hangover." Many quotes from the movie were used in the play, which was a real crowd pleaser. It was nice to see so many freshmen pull together to make their first play happen. We can't wait to see what they have in store for us next year!

Valentine's Day

Valentine's Day is an annual holiday held on February 14 celebrating love and affection between companions. The holiday first became associated with romantic love in the High Middle Ages, when the tradition of courtly love flourished. Modern Valentine's Day symbols include the heart-shaped outline, doves, and the figure of the winged Cupid.

Student Government members, Meredith McCourt, Megan Smith, Molly Smith, took over Cupid's role, delivering carnations to the romantics of Huntington High School to celebrate Valentine's Day. We celebrated Valentine's Day on February 12th here at school several partook in the festivities. Heart shaped balloons; flowers and candy were carried in the arms of many.

A decorative border of black ink splatters and floral motifs surrounds the page. The splatters are most prominent at the top and bottom edges, while the floral motifs are more subtle, appearing as dark, leaf-like shapes. The overall effect is a hand-drawn, artistic frame.

Fall Drama

Drama is the branch of theatre in which speech from written text is paramount. "The Stage Door" tells the story of several would-be actresses who live together in a boarding house at 158 West 58th Street in New York City.

Chamber Choir
 A chamber choir is the choral equivalent of a chamber ensemble, using voices instead of instruments. This prestigious choir will usually consist of 20-40 elite and dedicated singers.

Acapella Group
 A cappella music is group vocal music or singing without instrumental accompaniment, or a piece intended to be performed in this way.

Highsteppers

Highsteppers are a regional and national award winning kickline/dance team. Highstepping is very competitive, and the members of the team are required to practice for hours. All of the hard work and dedication pay off for this team.

Wind Ensemble
 The wind ensemble is generally modeled on the wind section of a Wagner orchestra. While many people consider the wind ensemble to be one part, this is only practical in true chamber music. Full band pieces usually require doubling or tripling of the clarinet parts and six trumpeters is typical in a wind ensemble.

Color Guard
 Modern color guard has evolved over the years into a sport that is a form of dance theater that uses props, along with movement, to express dynamic passages in the music accompanying the show. Modern color guards use flags, sabres, rifles, batons & swing flags.

Marching Band

Marching Band is an activity consisting of a group of instrumental musicians who generally perform outdoors and incorporate marching (and possibly onto other movements) with their musical performance. Instrumentation typically includes brass, woodwinds, and percussion instruments.

Junior Band
 A group of students who work with Mr. Stellato to put together amazing performances of musical pieces. Students include musicians from the 9th & 10th grade classes.

Senior Band
 A group of students who work with Mr. Giachetti practicing for hours on end to perfect their performance pieces. Students include musicians from the 11th & 12th grade classes.

Chorus

A chorus is a body of singers who perform together. A chorus is often led by a conductor or choirmaster. Most often a chorus consists of four sections intended to sing in four part harmony, but there is no limit to the number of possible parts.

Jazz Band
A jazz band is a musical ensemble that plays jazz music. Jazz bands usually consist of a rhythm section and a horn section. The rhythm section is the foundation for the band; it sets the feel for the piece.

Chamber Orchestra
Chamber orchestra is a small group of specially chosen musicians. They meet after school in the evenings. It is an instrumental ensemble of string instruments only.

Ready Step

Stepping or step-dancing is a form of percussive dance in which the participant's entire body is used as an instrument to produce complex rhythms and sounds through a mixture of footsteps, spoken word, and hand claps.

9th Grade Orchestra
 9th Grade Orchestra meets daily during first period. The term orchestra derives from the Greek, the name for the area in front of an ancient Greek stage.

Symphonic Orchestra
 Symphony orchestra consists of four proportionate groups of similar musical instruments called the woodwinds, brass, percussion, and strings. The orchestra, depending on the size, contains almost all of the standard instruments in each group.

Spring Musical

Meet Me in St. Louis is a romantic musical from Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer which tells the story of four sisters living in St. Louis at the time of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition World's Fair in 1904. The Huntington High School cast danced, sang and acted their way through a great performance!

A decorative border of dark, stylized floral and leaf patterns surrounds the text. The patterns are dense and intricate, with some elements resembling leaves and others resembling abstract floral shapes.

Principal: Dr. Leonardi

Dear Seniors,

Congratulations on a very successful year! Your determination and your eagerness to move towards your future goals are clear to all who have worked with you. The teachers and I are very proud of what you have accomplished and feel fortunate to have shared in your lives.

As you move ahead with college and work plans, we know you will discover that the preparation you received at Huntington High School has set a strong knowledge base from which you will continue to draw as you grow and develop into productive members of our society.

You are the adults we will all rely on to guide us into future decades. You will make the needed changes that will ensure the well being of our communities. I am confident you are up to the challenge and am proud of all that I know you will continue to accomplish. Best wishes for a bright and rewarding future.

Fondly,

Carmela Leonardi, Ph.D.

The Year in Review

-- Obama didn't just make history: He broke frequent-flyer records. The jet-setter got his passport stamped more than any other freshman president. He spoke in Cairo to repair Muslim-American relations, London for the G20, and China to broaden relations. Efforts to bolster American diplomacy also happened via global social networking. -- Two years ago, you might have said "Kim who?" But in 2009, the celeb-tante Kim Kardashian swiped the famous-for-being-famous crown from Paris Hilton and placed it squarely on her own long-locked head. -- Jimmie Johnson was NASCAR's golden boy this year. The 34-year-old has youthful good looks, talent, drive, and a top-notch crew. Even after a wreck set him back in Texas, No. 48 driver busted a record by winning his fourth Sprint Cup championship in a row. -- This year's social-media sweetheart made a splash (literally) when a Twitter user posted the first photo of the US Airways Flight 1549 evacuation in the Hudson River. A few months later, even more folks were introduced to the microblogging service when actor Ashton Kutcher challenged CNN to see who could get more Twitter followers. -- We saw the deaths of larger-than-life personalities, among them King of Pop Michael Jackson, '70s icon Farah Fawcett, and Senate lion Edward Kennedy, Patrick Swayze, Billy Mays. -- In Sports... The Yankees won the World Series #27! The NY Jets made it to the playoffs. The Winter Olympics were held in Vancouver, Canada.

-- Like her or not, Megan Fox was one of the biggest stories of 2009. Best known for looking sultry on the red carpet and acting offended when compared to Angelina Jolie, Ms. Fox also made (more) headlines by bashing "Transformers," the film franchise that made her famous. -- Within days of taking office, campaign promises turned into rapid-fire executive orders. A domestic stimulus bill and troop withdrawal from Iraqi cities were underway. Nearly all provoked spats, but the "Obama health care plan" unleashed feverish protests and ended the honeymoon period. -- Mom and Dad are one thing, but "friending" the president of the United States on Facebook—sure, why not? Other politicians may have used the Web in their campaign strategies, but Team Obama didn't meet a social network it didn't like. The president (who famously tussled for control of his BlackBerry) appointed the nation's first Director of New Media. Besides a spiffed-up Whitehouse.gov website (under intense geek scrutiny), a government site popped up for every major issue. But that's so Web 1.0. Obama made weekly addresses on YouTube, and citizens the world over signed up for his latest status updates on Twitter. His Facebook fan record did get surpassed—by Michael Jackson and Vin Diesel. -- On the Radio... Lady Gaga, Ke$ha, 3OH3, Cobra Starship, Justin Bieber, The Fray. -- On TV... GLEE, Gossip Girl, The Jersey Shore, The Buried Life, Modern Family. -- Jodi Picoult visited Huntington HS.

--His name may be Falcon, but the six-year-old got dubbed "Balloon Boy" after his parents pulled a fast one. Amateur storm-chasers Richard and Mayumi Heene let fly a helium balloon shaped like a silver saucer, then called 911 claiming that their youngest son might have snuck onboard. -- Despite Amazon's legal scandal involving copies of Orwell's "1984" being digitally snatched away, the Kindle is a 2009 success story. The February debut of the new and improved e-reader (the original Kindle came out in 2007) may have been met by skeptics, but the "early adopters" (i.e. college students and gadget-loving readers) snapped it up, and suddenly the sleek handhelds were popping up in dorms and on public transit everywhere. -- An ambitious White House may have inspired old-fashioned protests against a super-sized government, but at least one bureaucrat got an eager reception in 2009. The IRS stimulus checks under the Bush administration stirred up an online tizzy, but the Tax Man may have overdone his generosity this year by more than $20 million. -- In the movies... Alice In Wonderland, The Hangover, The Blind Side, Avatar, The Hurt Locker, Shutter Island, New Moon. -- The marriage between America's fertility sweethearts Jon and Kate Gosselin unraveled in time for their season 5 premiere. The parents of twins and sextuplets had raised their family before TLC cameras, but tales of extramarital carousing, maternal entitlement, and all-around greed didn't make the script until 2009.

--Homeowners sought refinancing, government help, and other ways online and off to save their properties, but the number of foreclosures still shot up in 2009. The stimulus package provided some much-needed relief for some homeowners, but not enough to spare the middle class and other families from the heart-break of losing their homes. -- Both Haiti & Chile were victims to massive earthquakes. In Haiti an estimated 200,000 people were killed. In Chile the magnitude was greater at 8.8 but many less people were killed. -- America was headed at breakneck speed to an economic breakdown, and the country was taking the whole world with it. The problems were years in the making and complex, touching everything from overextended credit and ballooning mortgages to Wall Street speculations and toxic banks. -- The Huntington High School Fashion Class was invited to Washington by the First Lady. In Washington the students met Mrs. Obama and participated in the events surrounding the donation of her inaugural gown to the Smithsonian Museum. -- Tiger Woods was caught cheating on his wife. He apologized for his transgressions. The golfer subsequently went into hiding while his world unraveled around him, more than a dozen women selling their sordid stories of affairs. "I was unfaithful. I had affairs. I cheated. What I did is not acceptable, and I am the only person to blame," he said during a press conference two months after the story first broke.

Dedications

Dear Camille,

Congratulations on a terrific High School career!

From freshman year on you've given us great pride in all you have accomplished with your hard work and dedication doing your best in every class & activity. You've stayed true to yourself and followed a path you were best suited and most comfortable which has set a great example for your sisters.

And the best is yet to come for you as we know you'll excel even more in college. We love you very much.

Mom, Dad, Chloe & Colette

*Alex,
It's been wonderful watching you grow as a person. We are very proud of all your hard work & dedication.
Be true to yourself and pursue all of your dreams.*

*Love,
Mom, Dad, & Jules*

Katie,
You are our gift from God. You have filled our lives with laughter and happiness. You have always made us extremely proud from when you were the only girl on your little league team to singing the National Anthem before the home football games. It seems like only yesterday you were a curious five year old starting Kindergarten, and now you are a lovely young lady about to graduate High School. I guess we must have blinked. May your success only be exceeded by your happiness. Much love, hugs and kisses. Mom, Dad and Kelsey

Dear Angela,

Your day has finally arrived! Your hard work & dedication has paid off!

We are so very proud of you! You have grown into such a beautiful girl & it has been so wonderful to watch you on & off the field.

We wish you happiness & success as you enter the next chapter of your life! Dream big!

Congratulations, Daniel!

We are so proud of you and all of your accomplishments. You have entertained us endlessly with your athletic events, your musical performances and your academic programs. You are an athlete, a scholar, a musician and a caring person. You've made us all laugh over the years, with your crazy costumes and characters. You have a great attitude towards life that we hope you continue to radiate during your college years. We love you and hope all your dreams come true.

Lots of love,
Mom, Dad, Meghan and Sarah
XOXOXOXOXOXOXOX

CONGRATULATIONS NOELLE!

No one could feel more pride as we experienced the joy of watching you grow from a quiet, wide-eyed and beautiful little girl into the quietly confident and equally beautiful young lady you are today.

Displaying your quirky humor, a positive attitude and a smile (along with your fierce fashion sense), you brighten the day, handling everything life throws at you with a maturity beyond your years.

We feel certain that those qualities, along with your high ideals and unyielding devotion to family and friends will take you wherever you want. You are an inspiration to all and we see your future filled with endless opportunities. The world is yours... take it.

With all our love and hopes,
Mom and Dad

Dear Stasa,
 Time the precious time flies like the wind. Just yesterday you were calling us to "video tape me, video tape me". And now you are taking another step in your life - a life we've noticed that you already are learning from yesterday, living for today and demonstrating hope for tomorrow.

Whether you're a little girl or a grown woman, you always remain our girl and will hold a special place in our heart. From you we learned about sweetness and spice of little girls. We also learned about patience and forgiveness, as you sometimes demonstrated a sulky attitude of a teenage girl.

And still it's from you that we've learned that whatever you choose to become, we will be proud of you simply because you have the key to our hearts forever.

Stasa, when Mom and Dad think of you two quotes come to mind.
"If you stand for something... you will fall for everything."
"You will either find a way, or make one."

Love,
 Mom, Dad, Constance, Andrew, Caroline & Joe

Now listen y'all and hear the plan, about Jacob Dean,
 he's the man,
 At least that's what he says, he tells us each day,
 "Now I know what to do now get out of my way."

"I'll aim for the moon and reach for the stars, I might just end up parking cars, at my crib that is, where all can come and play, cause
 this here's our story, this is our day.

The future is ours, it's plain to see,
 so come and take the journey with me"

We're so proud and excited for the chapters to come.

All our love,
 Mom, Dad, Molly, Lukas, Baloo, Cooper, and Sadie

Annie,

The day you got on the school bus for kindergarten, we knew you were going to love school and be a terrific student. We are so proud of all that you have accomplished throughout your school years. You have always worked extremely hard and all your hard work has paid off. You managed to balance your schoolwork, soccer, gymnastics, dance, and High Stepping and are terrific at all that you do. We love you very much and are extremely proud of you! There is nothing stopping you now!!!! Keep doing what you've been doing and you will do great!

Love, xoxoxo

Somehow we would always find our way back to each other. And with that, we could get through anything. To us. Who we were, and who we are. And who we'll be. To the pants. And the sisterhood. And this moment, and the rest of our lives. Together and apart.

We are so proud of you and all of your accomplishments. You are a strong individual with so many talents. We enjoyed watching you evolve as a student, an athlete and an amazing artist! You are kind and compassionate and have given your time to so many causes. We wish you much success and happiness in all that you do.

We love you so much,
Mom, Dad, Chloe, Hayley and Lars

"Things rarely go exactly the way you want them to, so sometimes you make due with whatever you can get... Endings are never easy; I always build them up so much in my head they can't possibly live up to my expectations and I just end up disappointed. I'm not even sure why it matters to me so much how things end here..

I guess it's because we all want to believe that what we do is very important, that people hang onto our every word, that they care what we think. The truth is: you should consider yourself lucky if you even occasionally get to make someone.. anyone, feel a little better. After that it's all about the people that you let into your life.

And as my mind drifts to faces I've seen here before, I am taken to memories of family, of coworkers, of lost loves, even of those who've left us. And as I round the corner, they all come to me in a wave of shared experience.. And even though it feels warm and safe, I know it has to end. It's never good to live in the past too long.

As for the future, it didn't seem so scary anymore. It could be whatever I wanted it to be..." -Scrubs
